Aberglasslyn

Welcome to our residential aged care home in the heart of Aberglasslyn

Set within the beautiful Maitland area of the Hunter Valley, our home is surrounded by the region's leafy outlooks and relaxed semi-rural character, offering personalised care and support for 118 residents, with elevated district views from the second storey.

This thoughtfully designed aged care home provides residents with a premium living experience, featuring various amenities, including an on-site café, multiple dining areas, and indoor and outdoor lifestyle spaces that reflect the welcoming, community-focused nature of the region.

All residents have the choice of a beautifully furnished single room with ensuite, or may opt for a larger single room or companion room, also with a private ensuite. The selection of room styles includes options with courtyards and balconies, offering opportunities to enjoy fresh air and the tranquil surroundings.

Our home in Aberglasslyn is managed by a team of experienced and dedicated aged care professionals, providing the highest level of care and support. The home also has an on-site wellness centre offering specially designed rehabilitation and reablement programs.
