

Welcome to Estia Health Albury, our aged care home in southern New South Wales

Built in 2009, Estia Health Albury is a modern and light-filled home with spacious and comfortable shared living areas and single rooms with ensuite and a kitchenette for residents to enjoy. Surrounded by its own landscaped lawns with raised garden beds and rotundas, residents and their families make the most of these throughout the year to celebrate special occasions together. The home is in a perfect location for exploring the local sites on outings and is close to Thurgoona Plaza shops, nearby public transport and bushland.

Many of our care team have been at the home for a number of years, providing compassionate care and support to residents. They include experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams looking after all aspects of a resident's care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed on for short-term respite care or a longer stay.

Residents enjoy getting involved in a range of activities, making the most of the home's grand piano for concerts, cinema room for weekly movie screenings, pottering in the gardens, joining in bocce, bowls and other activities.
