Estia Health

Bexley

Welcome to Estia Health Bexley, our aged care home located in southern Sydney

Purposely designed for aged care and opened in 2015, Estia Health Bexley is a beautiful and welcoming home that joins our Kogarah and Blakehurst homes to offer a choice of care and services to the southern Sydney community.

Situated across from Bexley Park with lovely views, the home's features include spacious lounge areas, a private dining room that can be booked for celebrations, hairdressing salon, library and cinema providing comfort for residents that choose to call it home.

The experienced team of clinicians, care and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed as short-term respite care or for a longer stay. The home has a Memory Support Unit with gardens providing a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support.

Daily activities are tailored to residents' interests and hobbies, with visiting pets, regular bus outings, visiting entertainers and much more.

Location

"My sister has only been at Estia Health Bexley for about one month, during which my experience of the management and the people has been positive. I feel that they are caring, responsive, always here when we needed them, encouraging, gracious, valuable and above all respectable. Thank you to the team at Estia Health Bexley."
