

Welcome to Estia Health Ryde, our aged care home located in northern Sydney, New South Wales

Estia Health Ryde is a small and welcoming home providing the best of care in a supportive environment. Situated on a quiet residential street, the home has a bus stop at the door and is moments from Meadowbank train station and a short drive to local shops.

With many team members having worked in the home for several years, the experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The onsite chefs cook fresh meals daily, based on residents' preferences.

Rooms are either single or companions for couples who wish to live together and some open out onto the home's courtyard. Residents come together in the light-filled lounge, spacious dining room or the landscaped gardens to enjoy barbeques together. There is a range of lifestyle activities tailored to residents' interests and hobbies, which includes cultural events and visits from volunteers.

Location

“Our family would like to thank you all for caring for David for the years he was a resident. He was not the easiest of men to get along with but he really did love you all. I will miss coming to Estia Health.”
