

Welcome to Estia Health Maroochydore, one of our Sunshine Coast aged care homes

Estia Health Maroochydore is a modern and welcoming home that opened in 2019 in the recently developed Sunshine Cove complex, joining our three other homes on the Sunshine Coast. Situated in a beautiful residential spot, the home has views across tranquil waterways with easy access to waterfront pathways and the complex's services, including a medical centre and shops.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The home's Memory Support Unit provides a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support.

The home offers spacious single rooms with ensuite. With a lovely café at the entrance with bi-fold windows opening to the outside, internal gardens and courtyards with raised garden beds offer tranquil and peaceful environments for residents and families. The home has a rich and diverse range of activities including a very active knitting club, regular scenic outings, visiting pets and its very own bird aviary with resident finches.

Location

“My special thanks goes to the employees employed at Maroochydore in the manner they assist with all residents including my mother. I am always greeted with a smiling face and in a manner of "nothing is too much trouble" attitude, but I know they are working under difficult situations and this is very much appreciated.”
