Estia Health

Aldgate

Welcome to Estia Health Aldgate, our aged care home in the Adelaide Hills

Located amongst the leafy surrounds of the Adelaide Hills, Estia Health Aldgate is a small and welcoming home with a close-knit community. Making the most of its unique country location, the warm and comfortable home is on a single level with established gardens, walking paths, raised garden and flowers beds, wide verandas, pergolas and barbeques.

The team include experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality looking after all aspects of a resident's care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed on a short-term respite or longer stay. The home's chef cooks fresh daily, creating nutritious home-cooked meals based on resident's preferences.

Daily activities are tailored to residents' interests and hobbies including regular games, arts and crafts, gardening, cooking classes, visiting entertainers and pets coming to visit. Residents also enjoy taking regular bus trips.
