Estia Health

Elizabeth Park

Welcoming aged care in Adelaide's northern suburbs

Estia Health Elizabeth Park is a warm and welcoming home in Adelaide's north, designed to help residents feel comfortable, supported and at home. Beautiful gardens, quiet sunrooms, relaxed dining spaces and an alfresco courtyard provide inviting places to spend time with family, friends and fellow residents.

Our experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams provide personalised support across all aspects of wellbeing, including round-the-clock clinical care. Private ensuite rooms, fresh meals prepared onsite and welcoming communal spaces create an environment focused on comfort, independence and connection.

Residents can continue enjoying the things that matter to them through a variety of lifestyle activities tailored to individual interests and preferences. Care is available for both short-term stays and long-term care in a supportive and caring environment.
