Estia Health

Golden Grove

Welcome to Estia Health Golden Grove, our aged care home located in northeast Adelaide, South Australia

Estia Health Golden Grove is a warm, welcoming home in a tranquil setting with views to the nearby Adelaide Hills. Residents enjoy the home's many features and its convenient location within walking distance to The Stables Shopping Centre and public transport and just a short drive to the village centre.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The home's Memory Support Unit provides a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support.

Rooms are single with ensuite and either overlook the gardens or courtyard. The home features a beautiful library, cinema, chapel holding regular services and gym room utilised by visiting allied health professionals. The home is part of its local community, with regular kindergarten and school groups visiting to take part in activities and a range of daily activities which includes music and art programs.
