Estia Health

Croydon North

At Estia Health Croydon North, care and community are at the heart of everything we do

In the heart of Melbourne's leafy outer east, our Croydon North home offers a calm and connected place to live. Here, care is delivered around the clock in a secure and supportive setting that prioritises each resident's independence and comfort.

Each resident room has been thoughtfully designed to feel both private and welcoming, with generous natural light and a private ensuite. Throughout the home, a range of shared spaces includes cosy lounges, creative areas, an on-site café, and outdoor terrace.

Daily life is shaped by a vibrant and evolving lifestyle program, where residents are encouraged to take part in activities that reflect their interests and abilities, designed to nurture wellbeing and build connections.
