

Welcome to Estia Health Keysborough, our aged care home located in southeast Melbourne, Victoria

Estia Health Keysborough is a warm and welcoming home reflecting its rich and vibrant local multicultural community. Walking distance to public transport and community services, the home is on a quiet residential street but only minutes from the Dandenong Bypass and EastLink tollway.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or longer stay.

The home has a mix of single rooms with ensuite and companion rooms with ensuite for couples wishing to live together. The majority of rooms have views of the landscaped courtyards or gardens and some have direct access to outdoor areas that residents can make their own. The home's features include a hairdressing salon, barbeque area for alfresco dining and a rich and varied lifestyle program tailored to resident's preferences with regular pamper sessions.

Location

“Thank you doesn’t seem an adequate word. They were exemplary in their care and respect to us and Mum, the level of care and support that I know Mum received in her short stay at Keysborough. I would like to express from Mum’s family to the dedicated and wonderful family at Estia Health Keysborough thank you.”
