Leopold

Welcome to Estia Health Leopold, one of our aged care homes located in Geelong, Victoria

Estia Health Leopold is a warm and inviting single-level home in a residential suburb, close to local shops and 15 minutes from the centre of Geelong.

The home is well-established and respected in the area for providing high-quality care with clinicians, carers and hospitality teams that look after all aspects of resident care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing. The home offers dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or alonger stay.

Residents enjoy a strong sense of community interaction with a busy activities program, a calendar of cultural events, concerts from schoolchildren and regular bus trips. The home has beautiful gardens, with alfresco dining areas and is pet-friendly with a resident dog and birds.

Rooms are single with ensuite, opening to gardens or the courtyard. Other features of the home include a private dining room that can be booked by residents for special events, a games room and hairdressing salon.
