Estia Health

Melton South

Welcome to Estia Health Melton South, our aged care home located in west Melbourne, Victoria

Estia Health Melton South is a warm and welcoming home reflecting its rich and vibrant local multicultural community. It is conveniently located moments from Melton train station, shops, cafes, medical clinics and churches.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer dementia care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The home's Memory Support Unit provides a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support.

The home offers single rooms with ensuite and garden views. There is a private dining room that can be booked for residents to share special occasions with their loved ones, as well as a hairdressing salon and onsite chapel. Outside, the gardens feature raised beds which residents can tend to if they wish or simply enjoy from the outdoor seating or the alfresco dining area. Activities include arts and crafts, bingo, high tea and pamper sessions, as well as a calendar of cultural events and visits from local kindergartens and schools.
